

Camp Salina

Camp Salina is a full day program for children 6-11 years of age. Designed for working parents who need affordable child care during the summer. Camp Salina offers a rich program experience includes arts-n-crafts, swimming, sports, field trips, movies, academic enrichment and special events. Participants are divided into age appropriate groups. Healthy snacks and lunch are provided. Sixty slots fill up fast, so enroll early. Nine one-week sessions beginning June 1st.

Fee: $80 per child

- The first week of camp must be paid in full upon registration. A nonrefundable deposit of $10 per week is required at registration to guarantee a space in each additional week of camp.
- Campers may begin registering March 16th. Registration is taken at the Parks & Recreation Department office from 8am-5pm, Monday thru Friday.
- For more information or a Parent Manual, contact the Parks & Recreation Department at 309-5765.
